The following statement was entered into the record for Supervisor Knabe:

“The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors and the Quality and Productivity Commission are hosting the 18th Annual Productivity and Quality Awards Program with the theme, ‘County Ambassadors: Performance Heroes’ at the Music Center Grand Hall of the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion on Wednesday, October 27, 2004. The Board congratulates County employees and departments for their achievements in improving service quality and productivity, generating savings, implementing or improving County services, and establishing beneficial collaborations between departments, the private sector, and the community-at-large. Over the years, this program has resulted in millions of dollars of cost savings, cost avoidance and revenue generation for the County.”

Therefore, at the suggestion of Supervisor Knabe and on motion of Supervisor Antonovich, seconded by Supervisor Burke, unanimously carried (Supervisors Yaroslavsky and Knabe being absent), the Board took the following actions:

1. Proclaimed the month of October 2004 as “Quality and Productivity Month” throughout Los Angeles County and congratulated County employees on their efforts to enhance the quality and productivity levels of County service;
